We had a fair opportunity for testing this friendly sentiment on Saturday evening last. A grand ball was given by the people of Maramoros to the Governor of their State of Tamaulipas, who has been among them on a visit. The preparations were sumptuous, and invitations extended to our citizens. Many attended. and were treated with that warm courtesy and friendly familiarity that gives evidence of sincerity. We would much like to see these friendly relations encouraged by the giving of To the sheriff of Dallas county-Greeting : similar ones in this city.
